UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR SEVEN-DAY EXTENSION TO RESPOND TO MOTION FOR PERMA-
NENT INJUNCTION [DKT. 87]

COMES NOW Defendant Robert Stanley Harrison and would respectfully show the Court as follows:

1. The Plaintiff has filed a motion for permanent injunction, the response to which is due by January 8, 2015. [Dkt. 87].

2. Mr. Harrison's counsel respectfully requests a seven-day extension to prepare the response.

3. The extension is necessary because undersigned counsel has several other matters also requiring his attention by January 8, 2015, including an oral argument before the Georgia Supreme Court, an oral argument before the South Carolina Court of Appeals, a reply brief to be filed with the Georgia Court of Appeals, two reply briefs to be filed in pending federal cases, and the Christmas and New Year's holidays.

4. The Plaintiff does not oppose this requested extension.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT STANLEY HARRISON
